MEMORANDUM.

Subject.- Claim for allowances for doing the duties of Muzrai Superintendent and Secretary, in addition to my own duties as Rev. Secretary.

----:o:-----

With reference to Government Notification No.195/C.B.35-19-1 dated 6th August 1919, directing me to do the duties of Muzrai Superintendent and Secretary, in addition to my own, vice Mr.G.Aravamudu Iyengar, I beg to state that I assumed charge from Mr.Aravamudu Iyengar on the afternoon of the 16th August last, and remained in charge of the duties of the said offices, in addition to my own, till the afternoon of the 25th October 1919, when I handed over charge to Mr.T.E. Jeyarama Iyer, appointed Muzrai Superintendent and Secretary in Notification No.461/C.B.35-19-2 dated 6th Octr. '19.

2. In now submitting my claim for remuneration for the additional duties performed by me, I beg to represent the following circumstances for the kind consideration of Government. It is needless for me to explain that the duties of my own office are heavy and demand all my time and attention, not only during the whole of the office hours but often out of such hours, and on Sundays and other holidays also. While this is so, the duties of another important and independent office in addition, naturally involved a very substantial increase of work and responsibility, which I was able to discharge only by increased application, and by devoting every hour I could spare, to office work. Though the period exceeded two months, and work was in full swing, I may be permitted to state that, by working extra time, I was able to clear all the work that turned up both in the Muzrai Superintendent's office and the Muzrai Secretariat during the time I was in charge, and left no arrears whatsoever when I handed over charge, except about a dozen papers in all, in both branches of the office. Nine out of these dozen papers related to old questions pending for several years past, and required the attention of the permanent Muzrai Superintendent himself. So, they were left over. With regard to the rest of the current work, both in the Muzrai Superintendent's office and in the Muzrai Secretariat, I left no arrears whatsoever behind.

3. I beg now to request that, in the foregoing circumstances, Government may be pleased to sanction to me the maximum remuneration allowable under the provisions of Art.97 Cl.(ii) of the Mysore Service Regulations for my additional work in the other independent appointment in question. Government may also be pleased to order the necessary declaration to be made under Note 1 to the said Article, so as to dispense with the proviso described in clause (iii) of the same Article.

4. In conclusion, I may bring to the kind notice of Government that on a previous occasion when I was in charge of the same appointment in addition to my duties as Under Secretary in the General and Revenue Departments, the Government were pleased to make a declaration dispensing with the proviso described above, and to give me enhanced remuneration for my additional work (Vide Govt.Proceedings No.G.5056-8/GM.270-12-2 dated 24th February 1913). It will be observed that the concession was shewn even when the Muzrai Superintendent was an Under Secretary to Government in that Branch, and the claim was that of an Under Secretary in the General and Revenue Departments. I hope I may, therefore, now prefer my claim, as set out in the previous paragraph, with greater justification.

5. I solicit the kind sanction of Government to my prayer.

7) During the period for which this claim is preferred, Mr. Ramaswamaiya drew emoluments as follows:-

Pay	..800
Acting allowance	..240
Local allowance	..150
	1,190

8) 2. He now claims the maximum remuneration which would be allowable under Art.97 (ii) of M.S.R. if proviso (iii) under the same article is dispensed with.

9) 3. The appointment of Muzrai Superintendent and Ex-officio Secretary in the Muzrai Department is included in the list of Deputy Commissioners and if Mr. Ramaswamaiya had officiated in it alone, he would have drawn Rs.800. The maximum amount allowable for the additional charge held by Mr.Ramaswamaiya is Rs.800/2 or Rs.400.

10) 4. If the limitation imposed by clause (iii) of the Article is not waived, Mr. Ramaswamaiya, would not get anything more than the emoluments noted in para 1 above. On a previous occasion, when he held the same charge, he was given half the maximum admissible under clause (ii). This time also he may be given half the maximum of Rs.400, i.e., Rs.200 per mensem.

11) 5. The local allowance given to Mr. ~~Ramaswamaiya~~ Ava vanmideiyar was personal to him.

12) 6. To allow the amount proposed above, it is necessary to appoint Mr. Ramaswamaiya to act as Muzrai Superintendent and Secretary and also to make the declaration required under Note 1 under Art. 97.

13) 7. No allowance should, I think, be given as a general rule to one Secretary doing the work of another, in addition to his own, as a temporary arrangement. In this case, the charge included that of an executive appointment as well--the Muzrai Superintendent--and accordingly the claim to additional remuneration may be admitted.

Proceedings of the Government of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

Read:-

Govt. Notification No.195/C.B.35-19-1 dated 6th August 1919 directing Mr.B.Ramaswamaiya, Revenue Secretary to Govt. to attend to the duties of the Muzrai Superintendent and Muzrai Secretary, in addition to his own duties, as a temporary measure.

2. Memo dated 27th October 1919 from Mr. B.Ramaswamaiya, Revenue Secretary to Govt. representing that the duties of the Muzrai Superintendent and Muzrai Secretary which he had ~~had~~ to do from the 16th August to 25th October 1919 in addition to the duties of his own office in accordance with the above notification involved a very substantial increase of work and responsibility and requesting that his salary for the combined charge of ~~both~~ all the offices may be fixed at the maximum amount admissible under Art. 9 cl. (ii), M.S.R., the proviso in cl. (iii) thereof being dispensed with by Govt. under note 1 to the said article.

Order No. 747-49
Dated, 99-19-2 D 13-12-19

In the circumstances stated Mr.Ramaswamaiya will be considered to have acted as Muzrai Superintendent and Ex-officio Secretary to Govt., Muzrai Department in addition to his own duties as Revenue Secretary to Govt., for the period from the 16th August to 25th October 1919.

2. Govt. consider that the salary to which Mr. Ramaswamaiya would be limite by the proviso clause (iii) of Art. 97 of the M.S.R. is not enough for the com bined appointments he held during the period. They therefore direct that he be granted an allowance of Rs.200 per mensem under clause (ii) of the said article in addition to his emoluments as Revenue Secretary for the period referred to.
